

APECS January 2010 Newsletter

The holiday season is over and we are all ready for a new and exciting year with APECS. I want to thank all members who have contributed time and energy to a very successful year for our organization and I hope that all of you will get actively involved in helping us build on these achievements during 2010.

The January edition of the APECS Newsletter is filled with many new activities, meetings and workshops that are planned in the coming months, with the Oslo Science Conference in June being one of the highlights. It is great to see that the Virtual Poster Session had quite a few contributions in the last months. I'm also very happy that APECS keeps on growing and I would like welcome all the new members to our organization.

Happy New Year 2010 to all APECS members!

-Gerlis Fugmann, APECS President 2009-2010

Report on the Launch of APECS Polska

Contributed by: Matt Strzelecki

The first "Launching" meeting of APECS Polska took place on 14-15 November at PAS Department of Antarctic Biology in Warsaw. Over two days 21 young polar researchers from Poland discussed their ideas about the association which will be able to fulfil the mission of APECS and also encourage young polarists in our country to work together.

In December we carried out first elections and started work on our charter and web site. The first APECS Polska executive committee was elected by acclamation and the results are: president Dr Gosia Korczak; vice-president Liliana Keslinka; treasurer Artur Adamek; Education and Outreach coordinator Mateusz Moskalik; and International relations coordinator Matt Strzelecki. Currently, we have 40 active members and we are working on further expansion. Our major goal for coming year is to prepare a Polar Symposium in Lodz (18-19.06.2010) and participating in the 2010 IPY Oslo Science Conference.

We look forward to another exciting year for APECS and we hope that work of APECS Polska will help in shaping the future of polar research, at least in Central Europe.

APECS Sweden Career Day

Contributed by Alex Taylor

On January 20 APECS Sweden will arrange a career day, to be held in the DeGeer Geoscience building at Stockholm University. A panel of polar science speakers will present their experiences and advice from a range of different occupations in academia, the public sector and business.

Latest Videos and Podcasts

Even though we all love reading a good literature paper, from time to time, we like to see science in action or listen to a meeting. This section is created to share fun things that your colleagues have created and to share the podcasts and lectures from our meetings.

Message from the Director

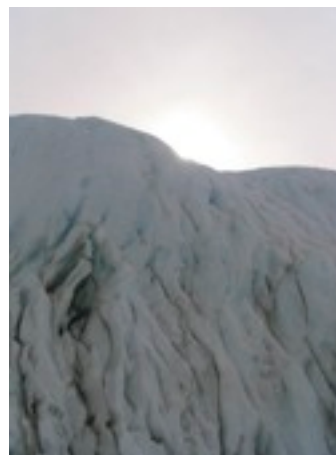

IPY Oslo Science Conference

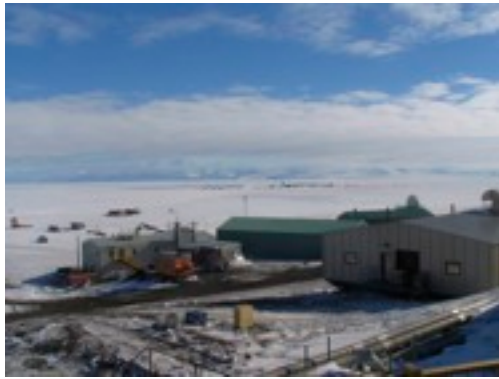

Happy New Year APECS Members,

2010 will see one of the major International Polar Research conferences in history. The IPY Oslo Science Conference will be held from 8-12 June 2010 in Oslo, Norway. You have already seen several announcements on the listserve about this conference, and you can expect to see a few more in the coming weeks. There will be loads of great events for young researchers such as a Professional Development Workshop, a Speed-Networking Reception, an APECS Lounge, and an area for you to have interviews with potential employers. To apply for one of the 400 young researcher stipends and travel fellowships, submit an abstract through the conference system by 20 January and check the box to apply for the Oslo Stipend. To get a sneak peak of the application log into the APECS website and go to apecs.is/oslo2010.

For more information on the conference and to submit your abstract go to <http://www.ipy-osc.no/>. Looking forward to seeing all of you in Oslo in June!

SCAR Report on Antarctic Climate Change and the Environment

Contributed by Kirstin Werner

Following production of the Arctic Climate Impact Assessment report in 2005, SCAR decided that a southern hemisphere equivalent was required, and set about producing it. 100 scientists from 13 countries contributed as authors, and the manuscript was worked up by an editorial team of 9, headed by Dr John Turner of the British Antarctic Survey.

IASSA Newsletter Autumn/Winter 2009

Contributed by Gerlis Fugmann

The Autumn/Winter 2009 issue of the IASSA newsletter "Northern Notes" is now available online at <http://www.svs.is/IASSA/NorthernNotes%20No31.pdf>, and includes an APECS Social Sciences update.

ice2sea Programme Announced

ice2sea is a European Union Framework 7 (FP7) funded programme, consisting of 24 project partners. The purpose of the project is to further constrain predictions of the contribution of continental ice to sea-level rise, over the next 200 years. It will contribute to the next IPCC report, as well as determining better understandings of the physical processes involved, creating a base of models for future work, and training a new generation of specialists to continue research in state of the art prediction scenarios.

State of the Arctic Conference - Student Travel Scholarships Available

Contributed by Gerlis Fugmann

Travel support is available for students to attend the State of the Arctic Conference, to be held 16-19 March 2010 in Miami, Florida.

The State of the Arctic Conference will be a major milestone for arctic science by providing an international forum to review the current knowledge of the arctic system in a time of rapid environmental change and point to future research, resource management, and policy directions. Participants will include a diverse and interdisciplinary group of scientists, students, agency personnel, policy makers, stakeholders and northern representatives, and media.

Symposium on the Politics of Antarctica

From 8-10 July 2010 an international symposium on Antarctic politics will be held at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch, New Zealand.

This symposium shall encourage the discussion of challenges and controversies with regard to the politics of Antarctica and will look at questions such as:

- Will the Antarctic Treaty be able to last another 50 years?
- Will the emergence of new actors with interest in Antarctica upset the current system?
- Does Antarctic governance need to democratise?

4th Open Science Conference at the XXXI SCAR meeting, Buenos Aires, Argentina

3 - 6 August 2010

The 1st Circular and call for abstracts for the 4th SCAR Open Science Conference, which takes place on 3-6 August 2010 in Buenos Aires, is now available. The conference theme is "Antarctica - Witness to the Past and Guide to the Future". The science programme of the OSC will consist of up to 53 sessions on 4 themes: (i) Connectivity and cross-scale interactions; (ii) Tipping points; (iii) Ecosystem health; (iv) Continuity and change. At this time the draft programme contains some 53 sessions. The final distribution of sessions will depend on the number of abstracts, which will be called for in the 1st Circular and on the conference web site.

Some early career scientists from APECS have been nominated to serve as Convenor and Co-Convenors for the different sessions, giving APECS members principal roles in the organization of this prestigious scientific conference.

UKPN Circumpolar Remote Sensing Workshop

20 September 2010

The 11th International Circumpolar Remote Sensing Symposium will be held in September 2010 at Cambridge's Scott Polar Research Institute. Prior to the conference (Monday, 20 September 2010), there will be a one day UK Polar Network Workshop on Circumpolar Remote Sensing.

Directed at graduate students and other early career researchers, sessions in development include Open source remote sensing and GIS, Imaging climate change, and Innovating new techniques; suggestions from potential participants are encouraged. The day will also feature a career mentoring panel and will culminate with the CRSS Icebreaker Reception.

APECS Leadership

APECS is lead by a wonderful group of early career researchers from around the globe. The Council is responsible for the strategic direction of APECS and Council members serve a vital role in facilitating communication between the Executive Committee, the Director, and the membership. For more information on the APECS leadership, and perhaps how to join, please visit <http://www.apecs.is/leadership>.
